

Franklin Park

found written in crayon on #42 of the 99 STEPS

Each person below has decided to enjoy a lovely day in the park, and has brought a picnic basket filled with items that don't quite fit the owner. Remedy the situation by adapting answers to match the owner.

A blowhard

1. Container for toothpaste (4)
2. Any of various prickly plants in the family Compositae (7)
3. Village Voice-presented award (4)

A dressy woman

1. Hack (4)
2. Potent; having powerful muscles (6)
3. Charles Dodgson's heroine (*5, part of an MW phrase)

A British guy checking out the girls

1. Dam-building mammal (6)
2. A movie on tape (5)
3. Former Israeli PM Yitzhak (*5)

Someone sitting in the shade

1. A barking animal (4)
2. An out-of-focus picture (4)
3. Specific piece of office equipment (6)

A French count

1. Maker of soft footballs (*4, not MW usage)
2. A fruit similar to a pomegranate (6)
3. A net (5)

Stephen

1. Something like a squash or pumpkin (5)
2. Bent part of an axle or shaft (5)
3. Something to hang on the wall (6)

A divine woman

1. A weapon of mass destruction (4)
2. Lists of food available to order (5)
3. Breath freshening candies (*5, not MW usage)